

Name : Md. Nazrul Islam Khan
Designation : Director
Division : Project Planning and Monitoring
Specialization: Irrigation & Water Management
Education : B.Sc. (Agricultural-Engineering) Major in Irrigation and Water Management,
Bangladesh
Cell : +8801711875724
Email : nikhan_rda.bogra@yahoo.com

ENGR. MD. NAZRUL ISLAM KHAN has been serving as a faculty since 1986 to date under different capacities at Rural Development Academy (RDA), Bogra, Bangladesh. At present he hold a position of Director at Renewable Energy Research Centre (RERC) and project Director of Community Bio-gas project. He is also a founder member of Centre for Irrigation and Water Management (CIWM); live fellow of Institution of Engineers Bangladesh (IEB) and Bangladesh Water Partnership as well as Global Water Partnership.

Mr. Khan has successfully completed his Graduation in Agricultural Engineering with major in Irrigation and Water Management from Bangladesh Agricultural University (BAU), Mymensingh, Bangladesh. He was also gained an advanced Diploma in Agricultural Management and Rural Development projects from Nordic Agricultural College, Denmark.

He is PhD research fellow at Kyoto University in Japan at present.

Mr. Khan has published several articles on Irrigation, water management, agricultural machinery, and renewable energy related issues of Bangladesh in national and international journal. He has organized and participated nationally and internationally seminar, symposian, consultations, and awareness campaign, comprehensive training so far, he visited different countries around the world.

Mr. Khan has expertise and consultant in designing and implementing of buried pipe irrigation system, low-cost DTW, Rural piped water supply as well as RDA developed different green technologies.

He is the second offspring of late Mozibar Rahman Khan and Mst. Ambia Khanom, who sees the light on February 2, 1961, at Rahmotgonj village in care of Sirajgonj Sadar Upazilla of District Sirajgonj, Bangladesh.