

Name : Dr. Mohammad Munsur Rahman
Designation : Director (In-charge)
Division : Social Science
Specialization : Data management, agricultural marketing and agribusiness
Education : PhD in Agricultural Economics (Japan). MSc. (Statistics), LL.B, Rajshahi University, Rajshahi. Certificate Course on Data Management System, Japan. JICA Certified TQM Trainer Data management, agricultural marketing and agribusiness
Cell : +8801713363691
Email : munsur@rda.gov.bd,mdmunsur@hotmail.com

DR. MOHAMMAD MUNSUR RAHMAN is a Senior Faculty Member of Rural Development Academy (RDA), Bogura and working here since 1993. He completed Doctoral Degree in Agricultural Economics from Japan in September 2006, Masters (1991) and Bachelor (Honours) in Statistics from University of Rajshahi in 1989. He started his career as lecturer of Statistics in Sardah Degree College, Rajshahi. He was involved in 21 research projects including safety net programmes, agribusiness, marketing, baseline, and evaluation studies and published 09 Journal articles in different national and international journals. Especially, he conducted a number of seven impact studies sponsored by outside agencies. He worked with the studies of World Vision, UNDP, UNICEF, ADB, World Fish Centre, DAE, DAM, Ministry of women and child affairs, etc. His main areas of interests are baseline surveys, program evaluation, livelihood improvement, agribusiness, marketing, value addition and value chain, entrepreneurship He is also involved in organising different training courses and conducting action researches related to rural and agricultural development. He is a “Certified TQM Trainer” authorised by JICA, Japan & BPATC, Dhaka. He attended many national and international training, seminars/workshops. He worked as Deputy Project Director in Food Security (Soil Fertility Component) project of RDA and RDRS Bangladesh (GoB Financed) for three years.