

Name : Samir Kumar Sarkar
Designation : Joint Director
Division : Agricultural Sciences
Specialization : Poultry Science
Education : M.Sc. (Poultry Science), Bangladesh Agricultural University (BAU), Mymensingh. Certificate Course on participatory Planning in Promotion and Management of Self-Help Organization (SHO), Food and Agricultural Organization (DSE), Germany. Certificate in Animal Production and Health, EICA, Egypt.
Cell : +8801714496117
Email : samir@rda.gov.bd,samirrda@yahoo.com

SAMIR KUMAR SARKAR is a Doctoral Fellow in Environmental Sciences of Jahangirnagar University. He completed 1st M. Sc. in Poultry from BAU, Mymensingh and 2nd M. Sc. in Agriculture from Japan & Bachelor (Honours) Degrees (1985) in Animal Husbandry from Bangladesh Agricultural University, Mymensingh. Acquired, internationally awarded certificates on Sustainable Rural Development (SRD) by JICA, Japan and Participatory Planning of Self- Help Group (SHO), from FAO (DSE), Germany. He has been working as senior faculty in different research projects for the last 23 years at RDA, Bogra on livestock & poultry production, marketing, value addition and value chain analysis, entrepreneurship development e.g. beef fattening, milch cow raising, proven heifer and bull selection projects evaluation, baseline surveys, social forestry, community biogas projects for livelihood improvement, etc.. In addition, he is involved in conducting training and action researches related to community biogas & cattle development through Assets Based Community Development (ABCD) approach. Having working experience with CIDA, JICA, DFID, BRDB, CVDP project of Ministry of Local Government Rural Development & Cooperatives etc. Total number of publication is 26 of which 15 research reports and 11 Journal articles published in national and international journals. Having working experience as Unit Head of Dairy and Poultry Units of RDA Demonstration Farm and engaged in creating sustainable, environmentally friendly production & marketing linkages especially for traditional and value added products especially related to dairy & poultry among the entrepreneurs and enterprises.