

Name : Nusrat Jahan Designation
: Deputy Director
Specialization : Mass Communication & Journalism
Education : BSS (Hons) in Mass Communication and Journalism, Rajshahi University. MSS in Mass Communication and Journalism, Rajshahi University. Fellowship course on 'Journalism for Female Graduates' arranged by 'News Network' & supported by Netherlands based International Organization 'Free Voice'.
Cell : +8801710970078
Email : nusrat@rda.gov.bd, nusratru@gmail.com

NUSRAT JAHAN has been working as Assistant Director since 2013. Presently she is working as a Deputy Director in renowned research & training organization named Rural Development Academy (RDA), Bogra, Bangladesh. She is also the focal person for communication and media sector of RDA. At present she looks after a half- yearly publication of RDA Newsletter along with compilation of published RDA's news regarding innovations, Researches and events in different national Daily Newspapers named TatthaProbaho.

She is graduated from Rajshahi University (RU). She has obtained BSS Mass Communication and Journalism degree from Faculty of Social Science. After that she did her MSS from the same department. She has professional training on Television journalism training: Visual storytelling: Best journalistic practice for Bangladeshi Women journalist. Organized by Bangladesh Center for Development, Journalism and Communication (BCDJC) and The Gaylord College of journalism and mass communication, University of Oklahoma, USA. Funded by US State Department. Before that, she has completed six month Fellowship course on 'Journalism for Female Graduates' arranged by 'News Network' & supported by Netherlands based International Organization 'Free Voice'. Recently she completed her PhD from China.

Nusrat is actively involved in co-ordination of different Training courses, workshops, seminars, conference and conducting session for higher officials, different public representatives and grass roots level people on various issues of rural development. She engaged herself conducting research in the field of communication, Socio-economic and rural development. She has published article in national and international journals.